

Part II - Leaders of the Movement (Choose two)

The Civil Rights Movement was successful because not only was the cause just and their time right, besides common folk willing to fight, they had great leadership. Martin Luther King Jr. was the focal point of that leadership. But there was so much more than him - For this portion of the assignment I want you to look at that leadership. Choose an individual from the list of leaders. After reading, relate to me three pivotal roles that individual played in the Movement. Then tell a story - first person - of their thoughts inside of the Civil Rights Movement. Write a first person diary. Be factual. Be emotional. Be memorable.
