

Spaghetti Dinner – Friday March 21

5:00 to 7:00 PM

Oakridge High School cafeteria

Ticket Price
$6
seniors $5

Please Join us – Dinner and a show

“Legally Blonde 7:30 Oakridge Drama Club”

The next best thing to Broadway... “Bella Italia” – a night out at Oakridge. Spaghetti Dinner – spaghetti, breadstix, punch and dessert. Frank Sinatra and Dean Martin. And then a rip roaring comedy “Legally Blonde” performed by the Oakridge Drama Club.

And Don't Forget – Close Up silent auction will be up and running at the dinner. See you there!

Grazie...

Photos of all students I'll take em on Monday

2014 OH Close Up

From May 3 to May 9, Mr. Wood and ten Oakridge students will be traveling to Washington D.C. to participate in Close Up. The Close Up Foundation is the nation's largest nonprofit nonpartisan citizenship education organization. Students from all fifty states and around the world participate each year. Oakridge students live, work, and share with all sorts of young people. We take part in the political process and explore the city. Proceeds to this dinner benefit Oakridge students headed for D.C. to change the world!

*Show tickets purchased separately

In order to help us plan better – Please by your tickets early from any Close Up member or at the High School Office. Tickets will also be available at the door.