1	Nervous. I am nervous, because I know what I want to be but I'm not sure how I am, going to pay for it or what college I want to attend. College is very expensive but that's not going to prevent me from going. I am excited to find out ways that I can pay for my future education beyond high school.	10/30/2014 1:43 PM
2	I am nervous about my career choice because im not really sure what college to go to. and if there is a certain college i have to go to then i might not have a high enough GPA. because my gpa is really low from my first two years of highschool. Im scared that i might not like my career choice.	10/30/2014 1:43 PM
3	I am feeling nervous about my future plan. The good feelings is that I am going to college and have more experience in the field I want to be in. The bad feelings is that I will be in alot of debt when I am done with college. The ugly is that how much college is going to cost me in the near future.	10/28/2014 1:28 PM
4	I am very scared. I know what I want to do, now that doesn't mean that that is what I'll become. The cost for college is crazy. I am eligible for some payments because my mom is a single mother, never went to college raising 3 kids on her own but I want to become a doctor. That's years in medical schools. That a lot of debt that I'm getting myself into. Yes i am going to have an awesome job but I'm going to be working my tail off just to give away a huge part of my paycheck every week to pay off my debts.	10/28/2014 1:27 PM
5	A word that would describe my future at this time would be nervous but ready,i am nervous on how i will be able to get into college and worried on how my ACT score will affect what college i get into also i do not know how i will be paying for college i havent been thinking about it as much as i should be but now that i am in my junior year i feel i need to start getting more prepared so i wont be rushing throught my senior year.	10/28/2014 1:23 PM
6	I am nervous because I know what career path I want to do because I want to be a vet tech and I know that the best college to go to in Michigan with the best vet tech program is baker college but I don't know how I will pay for I am hoping to get scholarships or maybe get a job to save some money for college	10/28/2014 1:21 PM
7	good. I am capable of getting a full ride to any college I want. I feel good about paying for college.	10/28/2014 1:20 PM
8	I want to go to college, and I want to get a good job! I know im forsure going im just nervous and scared about the cost of college.	10/28/2014 1:20 PM
9	I'm somewhat nervous, I know what career I am shooting for. That doesn't concern me. What concerns me is that I haven't really thought about what college I want to attend. I also haven't paid attention to the prices. I know that when I go to college the prices will be higher than they are now. I know that I have to go to college for about 10 years to become an OB/GYN.	10/28/2014 1:20 PM
10	concerned. though i have my career path ready and know what type of education i am going to get the thought of having to pay for collage makes me cringe at the word.	10/28/2014 1:19 PM
11	Nervous. I want to be whats best for me, and i want to go to the college that will teach the best for less.	10/28/2014 1:15 PM

12	Nervous. I am nervous about beginning college because this will be the first time that I am on my own and will have to be able to provide for myself. Paying for college is also a concern because with the colleges I want to attend, the cost is upwards of 20,000 and I worry that I will graduate college with a high amount of debt.	10/28/2014 1:15 PM
13	Good. I feel good about my career education and stress because I'm not too worried I'm laid back knowing that I have it planned and I know how it's going to be paid for. I'm just prepared and I'm not worried about it knowing that the field I'm going into is great.	10/28/2014 1:13 PM
14	I know what I am going to go to college for and know somewhat the kind of classes I will need but I haven't researched colleges yet. I have planned for my career while I go through college and know how far I will have to go with my education. I'm also not sure what degree's I will need to get although I will be in school a while.	10/28/2014 11:59 AM
15	I feel okay about my future career plan. I am nervous but excited at the same time. I have 2 colleges picked out and I know which classes I want to take. I want to be an OB/GYN, or something that has to deal with babies like in the pediatrics area	10/28/2014 11:59 AM
16	I cannot think of a word that describes my feelings about my future plans. I can say that I am pretty sure how my way should look like but I when I think about colleges or jobs I do not really have a want although I have imaginations. I am a little bit insecure because you never know what is going to happen and if everything is going to work out as you imagined it.	10/28/2014 11:58 AM
17	uncertain At the moment I have no idea what I want to do. I have some ideas and I know what I definitely not want but I'm not sure if I can get my favorite job and if I will have a good career. But I think that I'm not the only one who has this problem and I'm not very nervous about my future.	10/28/2014 11:58 AM
18	Undecided. My career I do not know what to do. I want to do engineering but I'm nervous about the classes. I want to do marine biology but do not know anything about it. I'm thinking about going into the military which is very difficult because I want to be a ranger in the army. Knowing. I want to go to MCC for my first 2 years for my boring stuff and then off to Penn State. If I do not know what career to do then I'm undecided about college. Struggle. I wish I could just make up my mind.	10/28/2014 11:56 AM
19	My feelings about numbers 1,2, and 3 is that I do have some plans but they are not for sure either. Like I want to be an actress and or a police officer but many people have told me that those careers are not a good choice. Then other people think I should be a tax helper but I really don't want to deal with numbers all day and then others say I should be a person who messes with someone but I don't want to touch strangers back all day either so I am just in a pickle.	10/28/2014 11:55 AM
20	UNPREDICTABLE I know I want to go to college, I know I want to get a good education at a higher class university but I know how much college costs. I know there are scholarships but not enough to pay for all of my college with my GPA. The cost now is outrageous and I still have 2 more years, who knows what it will be when I'm trying to enroll. I also struggle because I do not know what it is exactly that I want to do for sure yet.	10/28/2014 11:54 AM
21	Drowning in anxiety.	10/28/2014 11:53 AM
22	I am annoyed by the fact that higher education costs keep rising, I am scared, because I want to get a higher education and I know what I want to do, but I don't know how I'm going to pay for it.	10/28/2014 11:53 AM
23	Unsure. When it comes to thinking about my future career it makes me think. In today's world college is basically a requirement, and that's the part that gets to me. What if something goes wrong and I don't make it through college? I am pretty sure of what it is I'm doing after high school but I'm not 100% sure, nothing is set in stone. I have to weigh in my options before I put anything in stone. But one way or another I will achieve some form of higher education in order to become what it is I decide on.	10/28/2014 11:53 AM
24	Anxious. I have very basic ideas but I do not know what to do with them or where to go to achieve my goals. I only have the idea of what I want to do career wise but I don't know how to start off.	10/28/2014 11:52 AM
25	Scared. I know that I should be getting more serious about all of this but I just can't. I don't know why I don't worry and I know I'll be running around like a chicken with its head cut off when the time comes but right now I'm not trying to focus on it in particular. I just know that I don't want to go to college.	10/28/2014 11:51 AM
26	Nervous. I know that I want to go to school for electronics but I don't have much of a plan yet. All I know is college is so overpriced that I will be in so much debt afterwards. I'm not looking forward to the cost of college at all.	10/28/2014 11:51 AM
27	I believe I am set to continue on the path I have chosen for myself. I feel confident in what I plan to do in my future. I have selected a path to further my education. This path will also better me as a person and will provide a service to my country. I feel this path is right for me.	10/28/2014 11:50 AM

28	Honestly i dont know about going to college i dont want to be thousands of dollars in debt with nothing else and not be able to have freedoms yet i dont want to have to work at applebees	10/28/2014 11:49 AM
29	Nervous. I feel like I have to decide what I want to do for the rest of my life. im only 18 years old. Its hard to decide that.	10/28/2014 11:47 AM
30	Kind of unsure of my feelings up to this point. I know what i want to do, im just unsure of how to get all the way there. Im starting my career as a cosmetologist this year and im very excited to move foreword. Im kind of worried about the cost of college and what fasfa is going to cover for me. i know i want to start at mcc and work my way up to a university. I guess i just haven't put alot of thought in to it yet.	10/28/2014 11:46 AM
31	Focused. I like to live life a day at a time, i don't worry about the unexpected. you can call me lazy. you can call me a procrastinator, but somehow things will just sort their ways out. they always have, always will.	10/28/2014 11:46 AM
32	scared, the reason why is because our economy is turning to crap and im scared that im not going to be able to get a house or an apartment. plus i dont want to be poor living on the streets.	10/28/2014 11:46 AM
33	I feel good about my future career, i have been doing it for four years so I've gotten quite good at it. Also most the time the companies I'm looking at are good paying and if you need some training in the trade, they'll send you out to do it and they will pay for it.	10/28/2014 11:45 AM
34	i am nervous about my college career because i know what i want to do but i dont know exactly how i am going to do it...	10/28/2014 11:43 AM
