11	War. That people hard to communicate with each other and be able to understand about inter-cultural matters.	9/11/2017 10:22 AM
12	War because I want every country to work together to maintain world peace and help the world become a better safer place.	9/11/2017 10:21 AM
13	Unknown. I am unaware or have little information on the world, so I do not know what the future could hold.	9/11/2017 10:21 AM

29	Bad: That the world will turn into this awful place where people can do and say whatever they want without a care in the world. Where right and wrong are inevident. That everything we read and hear is just garbage and that everyone becomes self-absorbed in themselves to the point where they forget what the point of life is and that they just tear each other down. To only think about themselves getting to the top and about only their personal success and not how that affects others when they get there.
